Projects

Some projects successfully implemented with Kirill's participation:

- Representing the interests of a Russian entrepreneur (included in the Forbes list) in a number of court disputes regarding challenging paternity, limiting parental rights, depriving parental rights, collecting alimony and legal expenses. Based on the results of evaluating the evidence collected and presented to the courts, the courts sided with our Client and satisfied the stated requirements in full.
- Advising the top management of a large Russian metallurgical holding in disputes regarding the removal of illegally distributed, incorrect and irrelevant information from the Internet.
- Representing the interests of a large automobile distributor in numerous disputes regarding the foreclosure of pledged items under pledge agreements for goods in circulation, within the framework of which interim measures in the form of seizure of cars sold to third parties were lifted.
- Protecting the interests of a top manager of a Russian transport holding company in a dispute over the protection of honor, dignity and business reputation with unscrupulous media outlets that disseminated false information. As a result of the legal dispute, a decision was made in which the information was recognized as untrue.
